

Pre-InSiGHT Programme for Gastroenterologist

Scientific committee

Maria Pellisé (Spain)
Ian Granlek (Israel)
Thomas Seufferlein (Germany)
Francesc Balaguer (Spain)

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19TH

08:25 - 12:20

ESGE/ESDO postgraduate course:
"Advances in GI endoscopy and immunotherapy in the management of hereditary GI syndromes"

08:00 - 08:30

Registration

08:25 - 08:30

Welcome message

Ian Granlek, Thomas Seufferlein, Francesc Balaguer

08:30 - 09:30

SESSION 1:

Tips and Tricks for colonoscopy in high-risk conditions

Chairs:

Ian Granlek, Francesc Balaguer

- Surveillance of the colon in Lynch Syndrome: Tips and tricks.
María Pellisé, Barcelona, Spain
- Surveillance of the pouch/rectum in FAP: Tips and tricks.
Andy Latchford, London, UK
- Management of SPS: How to diagnose and treat SSLs.
Evelien Dekker, Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Pre-InSiGHT Programme for Gastroenterologist

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19TH

09:30 - 10:30

SESSION 2:

Tips and tricks for upper endoscopy in high-risk conditions

Chairs:

María Pellisé, Andy Latchford

- Prevention of gastric cancer: Tips and tricks for a high-quality upper GI endoscopy. Mario Dinis Ribeiro, Porto, Portugal
- Prevention of gastric cancer in FAP
Arthur Aelvoet, Amsterdam, The Netherlands
- Managing CDH1/CTNNA1 patients
Tanya Bisseling, Nijmegen, The Netherlands

10:30 - 11:00

☕ Coffee Break

11:00 - 11:40

SESSION 3:

Surveillance of the duodenum in high-risk conditions

Chairs:

Evelien Dekker, Tanya Bisseling

- How to deal with intestinal polyps in Peutz Jeghers?
Begoña González, Barcelona, Spain
- Management of duodenal polyposis in FAP
John Gasdal Karstensen, Copenhagen, Denmark

11:40 - 12:20

SESSION 4:

New advances in immunotherapy in GI cancers

Chairs:

Thomas Seufferlein

- Immunotherapy in colorectal cancer
Eric van Cutsem, Leuven, Belgium
- Immunotherapy in upper GI cancer
Thomas Seufferlein, Ulm, Germany

